WEEK OF MAY 4, 2021

ALAN NEITZEL CENTRAL SD

WEEKLY NOTES

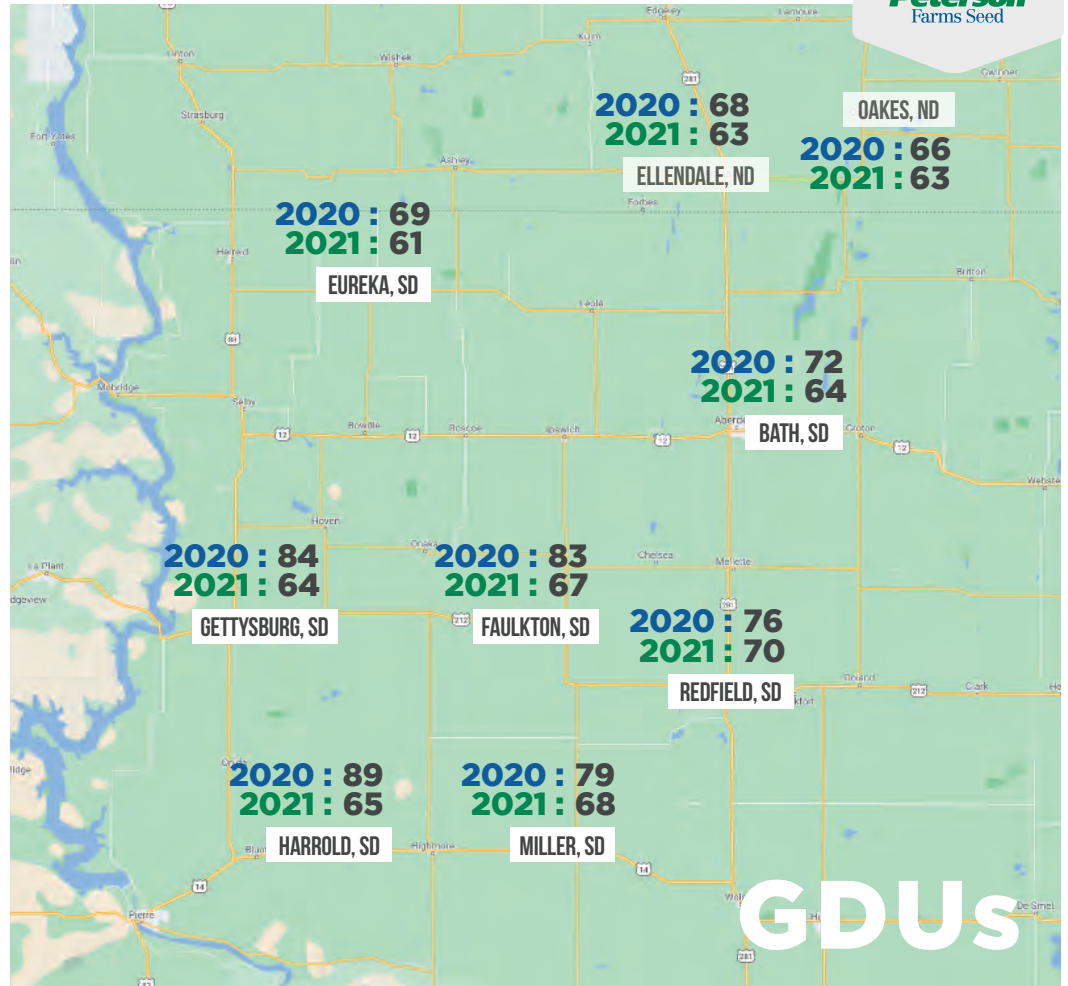

Farmers in my area are advancing quickly.

With no rain, they should be finished in about a week.

CRAIG LAVOI SOUTHWEST MN

WEEKLY NOTES

South of Willmar, I'm seeing farmers finishing up corn.

Head north, up to Fergus Falls, they are hoping to finish corn this weekend.

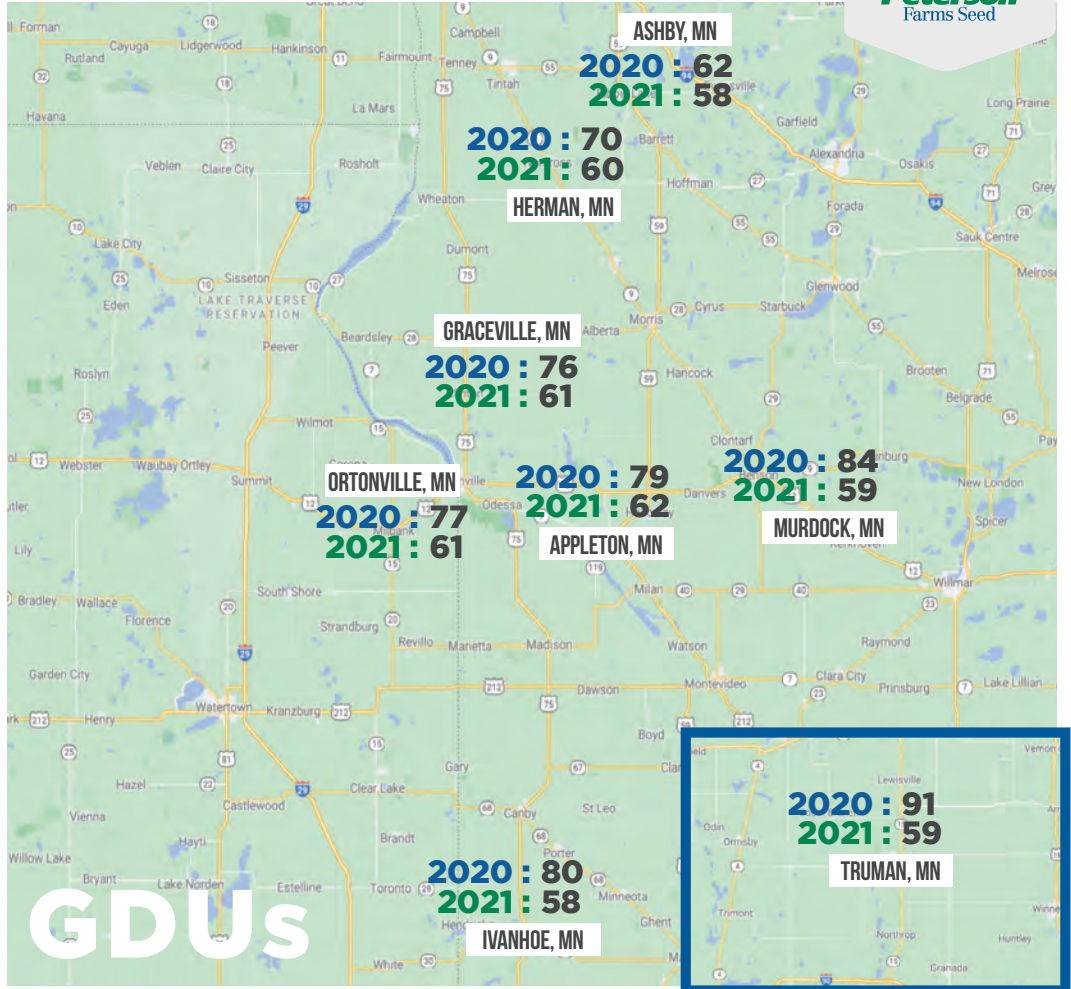

Soybeans are all over the board: some will be finishing this week and some haven't started.

DANNI SANDERS

EAST CENTRAL ND
WEST CENTRAL MN

WEEKLY NOTES

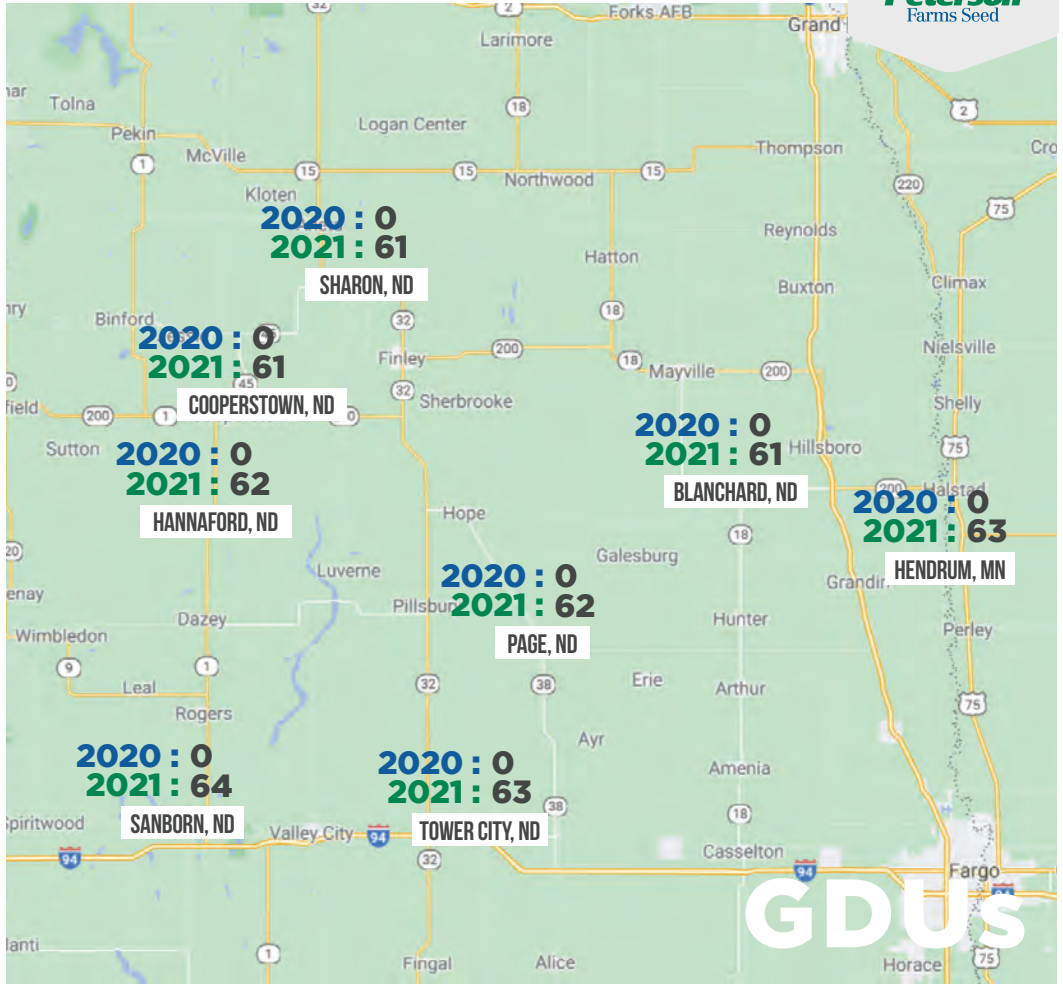

Planting is all over the board, some areas are still wet while others might be finishing by the weekend.

Wheat is finishing up, 60% of the corn is done and we're about 25% done on beans.

WEEKLY NOTES

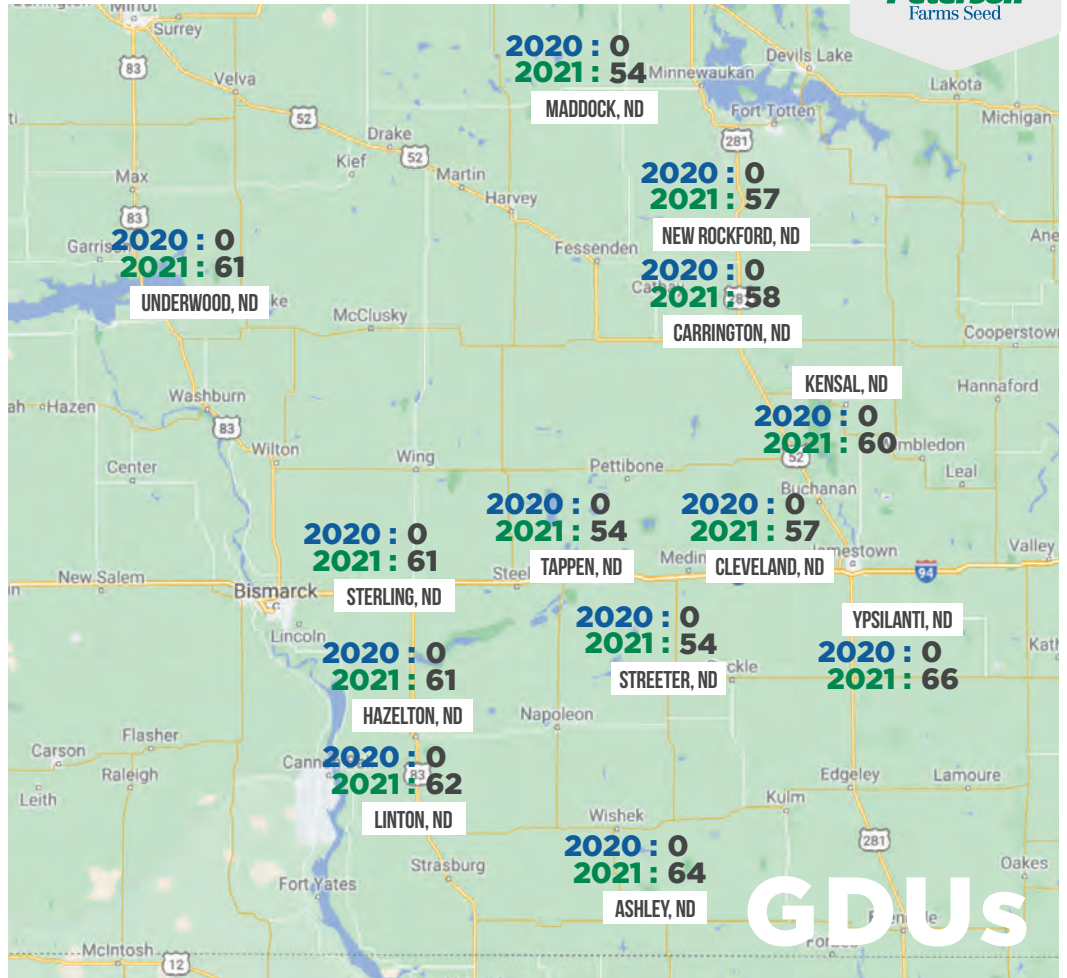

In my area, everybody seems to be rolling on something whether corn, soybeans or wheat.

The next couple nights of cool temps have a few guys holding off on corn for a couple days.

MIKE SORBY WEST CENTRAL MN

WEEKLY NOTES

Wheat is done, corn is 80% done and soybeans are 50% done.

Some areas are still a little wet but overall, planting conditions are the best we've seen since 2017.
